The Rehab Therapy Society Rookie of the Year Award shall be presented to the one Occupational Therapy and one Physical Therapy first year student who have demonstrated a high level of participation, sportsmanship, and dedication to the intramural program and the School of Rehab Therapy community. A maximum of two students will be presented with the award annually.

2.11.2 Chairperson

The Speaker of the Rehabilitation Therapy Society shall act as the Chairperson. The speaker must understand the constitution and the sections stipulating the awards. This individual shall be the only non-voting member of the Selection Committee.

2.11.3 Committee

The Selection Committee shall consist of the class representative from each class and the one non-voting Chairperson to ensure two members from each discipline. If any member of the Selection Committee is found to be nominated for the award, that person is to be replaced on the Committee. The replacement shall first be drawn from other members of the Rehabilitation Therapy Society Council from the same program. If no other council members are eligible to sit on the Selection Committee, the replacement shall be an arbitrarily picked individual from the second-year class. Each member of the Selection Committee must attend every meeting otherwise his or her vote will be forfeited.

2.11.4 Selection Process

The selection process for all of the Rehabilitation Therapy awards:

- i. Promotion of the award, by any and all available means (email, Rehab Society website, class announcements, social media posts, etc.) shall commence 6 weeks prior to the Spring Graduation Formal, with the exception of the Rookie of the Year Award which shall commence immediately after the start of the second-year fall term and shall last for a minimum of 1 week. Promotion of the award shall be made by the Speaker. The information provided through the promotion shall include:
 - a. Description of the award
 - b. Criteria for eligibility
 - c. Opening and closing dates
- ii. Nominations will be accepted from any member of the society within the nomination period outlined. Once this time has expired no additional nominations will be accepted. The nominations must include the nominee's name, name of the student submitting the nomination, along with a description of why the nominee should be considered (to a maximum word limit of 150).
- iii. The Chairperson shall collect all nominations and call the first meeting of the Selection Committee the week following the conclusion of the nomination period. Discussion regarding the meaning of the award and the selection process shall take place during this meeting. Copies of the nomination descriptions for each nominee with any identifiable information removed will be distributed. Each member of the selection committee will cast a secret ballot identifying any nominees they wish to reject. If any nominee receives two rejects, their nomination shall be nullified.
- iv. Of the remaining nominees, a vote shall be taken. Votes are to be taken via secret ballot based on a ranking system, i.e. every voting member shall rank the nominees from most deserving nominee to least deserving nominee. The Rehabilitation Therapy Awards will be granted to the top nominee from each program.

2.11.5 Award Winners

The Chairperson shall arrange to have certificates printed for each award winner. All nominees are to be contacted and informed of their nomination. The names of all successful nominees shall be announced at the Graduation Formal. At this time the Rookie of the Year winners shall be announced and receive their certificates.

Article 12: Amendments to the Constitution

2.13.1 Amending the Constitution

Any amendments of an Article contained in this Constitution requires a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at the Council meeting, or of those voting in a referendum of the Society at a General Meeting.
